Per telcon, I am sending you attached a redraft of your proposed book dispatch regarding copies of requisitions sent to Field Stations and Bases. Would appreciate your looking this over and then telephoning me.

My purpose in including the second sentence in paragraph one is in effort to emphasize that Stations and Bases will continue to receive that documentation in which they really have the most interest and need. Note also that I have changed dates and the length of the trial period since we agreed it could not possibly begin before 1 March and that four months is more than adequate.

I understand that in your preliminary discussions with FE, (AF) and NE Division, DDP, the latter had no objection to your proposal in discontinuing the forwarding of requisitions.

Finally I have omitted "edited copies" in my draft because I feel that this is Logistics' terminology and that it would not be understood and could be confusing to the Stations.
